2- School news	Katharine reported that Mrs Lound is happy for us to go ahead with the raffle, Father Xmas presents and party boxes. It is hoped that events will be able to return to nearer normal in the Spring.
3- Matters arising from minutes of last meeting	None
4- Review of events	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 2nd Learning pack with bird feeders etc were very appreciated. • Lauren bought Easter eggs. Many thanks. • Thanks were given to Lauren. Lindsey and Pat for decorating the fence for Mayday. • Katharine passed on thanks for the donation for school trips o Hautbois, Sheringham Park and fishing She said it was moving to see the children experiencing new things and challenging themselves. • Y6 Hoodies – children loved them and the company were great so we will use again. • Y6 leavers barbecue. This was a lovely event at the end of the year. It was agreed that this will be an annual event funded by the Friends alongside parents. • Lollies were a lovely addition to Sports week
5- Treasurers Report	Current bank balance: £3831.53
6- Future Events	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Father Christmas – Jenni will buy gifts to wrap for the children Gift needs to be bought for Santa this year. • Christmas 'party snack boxes' – Lauren to buy, boxes, crackers and xmas decoration from Baker Ross. Lindsey to buy treats and pack boxes. • Xmas Raffle - Pat to get raffle tickets and put books in the pub and shop, message to go in newsletter asking for ideas for prizes, draw to take place in school so children 	Jenni Lauren Lindsey Pat Katharine ne are involved, and parents can collect prizes from school.

7- AOB	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lauren has completed the charity commission annual return. • Payment system for non-uniform day was discussed as it seems confusing that some people donated on the app and some gave cash and we are not sure how the money is getting to the Friends. Katharine will follow up with Miss Faux. 	Katharine
